AMERICANS CLEAR WOOD OF GERMANS

With the American Forces on the Marne, June 25.—American troops on the Marne last night captured the northwestern part of Belleau wood. The Americans cleared this strategic position of all the Germans, captured some prisoners and took five machine guns.

The Americans now are in complete possession of the woods. The attack was begun with a heavy barrage, after which the Americans went over almost immediately and smoked out the Germans whose positions were regarded as almost impregnable.

One machine gun found in a tree was operated by a pulley. The engagement lasted only half an hour. It is taken to testify further as to the thoroughness of American methods and to the determination of the American to succeed in any undertaking assigned to them. The whole affair was brilliantly carried out.

(By the Associated Press)

HUN LEADER BLAMES WAR ON RUSSIA

(By the Associated Press)
Amsterdam, June 25.—The chief blame for instigating war was laid at Russia's door by Dr. Von Kuehlmann, German foreign secretary, in an address before the Reichstag yesterday, in which he also dealt with Germany's war aims. France and England, he declared, are next in order of culpability. Kuehlmann declared Germany can make no promises regarding Belgium.

SET FOR JULY 3

Amsterdam, July 3.—The general election in Holland fixed for July 3, has more than ordinary interest for the outside world as it will be the first during the war. It may possibly result in the replacement of the present extra-parliamentary cabinet, which has held office throughout the war, by a regular party ministry.

It will be the first election to be held on the basis of the revised constitution with universal and proportional representation, so that the result is more than usually uncertain. While the Dutch socialists have hitherto refused to participate in the government, the party now intimates its readiness to enter an eventual ministry if satisfactory guarantees are forthcoming regarding the democratic basis of its policy.

Twenty-one parties have so far nominated candidates including the new Economic League, of which the present Finance Minister, Dr. Treub, is leader, another body calling itself the League for the Democratization of the Army, and little class groups claiming to champion the interests of shopkeepers, the agricultural population or the police. The campaign is already in progress.

BRAIN TESTS IN BRITISH ARMY

London, May 28 (Correspondence of The Associated Press).—American soldiers, who prize mental as well as physical efficiency, are showing much interest in a "brain-drill" recently introduced into the British army. Its purpose is to teach the British soldier to think quickly and to concentrate his mind on what he is doing.

An officer lines up a company and, as a preliminary to the brain drill, puts the men through some simple calisthenics. "Now," he explains, "when I say 'Do this,' you'll do it; but if I say 'Do that,' you won't do it." He carefully illustrates the motions to be done and then motions not to be done.

"Ready, Do this, Do this, Do this." The men obey. Suddenly his arms shoot down by his side. "Do that," he commands. Unthinkingly, half the men fall into the trap he has set. Amid the laughter of the rest, they are ordered to fall out and stand aside.

When all except two or three have been eliminated, the game is changed. The men are formed into two lines, facing each other and about sixty yards apart. A cap is tossed on the ground midway between the lines and then the men in couples, one from each line, walk slowly up to it and try to snatch it before the other can touch him. If, while the cap is held by the snatcher, the other manages to put his finger on him before he can jump away, the cap must be dropped and the contest renewed. At last one whisks the cap away and is off.

"Crows and Cranes" is another feature of the drill. Again the men are lined up about ten yards apart, the officer standing between.

"Those on my left," the officer says, "are cranes and those on my right are crows. If I shout 'Crows,' the cranes will dash off and the crows will chase them. But if I shout cranes, the crows will dash off and the cranes will chase them. Now, are you ready?"

Then for nearly a minute he stands, giving an imitation of an automobile engine running free at full speed. "Cr-r-r-r-r-r." Both lines stand tense and eager, awaiting the word.

"Crows!" he enunciated at last. Half the crows bolt instead of dashing after the cranes. Inattention. However, the quick-witted among the crows were after the cranes in a jump.

"This is all to teach you to act on the spur of the moment," the officer tells the men. "It may be a case of life or death whether you or the German moves first. You may be the quick or you may be the dead."

Panting, the men march off. They like the brain drill.

TOLD THERE WAS NO HOPE FOR HER

Takes Tanlac and Five Years Misery Is Now Ended. Gains 13 Pounds.

"I had fallen off to ninety-three pounds and really thought I was going to die," said Mrs. Ella Faulkner of 2916 Blackburn street, Dallas, Texas.

"I had no appetite," continued Mrs. Faulkner, "and the pains in my stomach after eating were frightful. The gas pressure on my heart would almost smother me to death and many times I was unable to lie down at all. I had intense pains in my feet and legs, was badly constipated and had headache all the time. I often had dizzy spells and was so nervous the slightest sounds disturbed me and I could hardly sleep at all. I was told I had pellagra and that there was no cure for me and though I had tried the best of treatment and took quantities of medicines nothing helped me."

"This had been my condition for five years and I had just about lost all hope of ever getting well. For five months, before I began taking Tanlac, I was down in bed half of my time, and when I was up I could hardly drag myself around. Finally a friend of ours insisted on me trying Tanlac and now I can't praise it enough. It just seemed to take hold of my case at once and all my miserable feelings gradually disappeared. I have a fine appetite now, my nerves are quiet and I have no headaches or pain of any kind and by using the Tanlac tablets in connection with Tanlac I have been relieved entirely of constipation and dizziness. My sleep is as sound and good as ever and I get up in the mornings full of life and energy. I have gained thirteen pounds in weight and can work hard all day without getting tired. I'm feeling healthy, hearty and well now, and it seems like nearly everybody is asking me what makes me look so well, and it's a pleasure to tell them Tanlac did it."

Tanlac is sold in Ada by Gwin & Mays Drug Company, and by leading druggists and dealers everywhere.

Washington, June 25.—Diplomatic and official circles were astonished at the speech of Dr. Von Kuehlmann putting the chief blame for the war on Russia and England in third place. They are unable to understand the motive in the speech, and for the statement contradicts all German official arguments heretofore and diplomats think it might fore-shadow some further move.

The rout of Austrian army in Italy is like the breaking of the sunlight through the dark clouds. The victorious Italians, elated by their victory, and thirsting to avenge their own defeat are now in full pursuit and the race is on. The Germans will probably have enough men on the field in a few days to check the retreat, but Italy has been saved and will be a potent factor during the remainder of the war. It would be hoping too much to expect the retreat to carry the Huns back onto their own plains with the Italians pushing them to the limit, but a good start has been made. It is highly probable that the western line will be so reduced by withdrawals to save the Austrians that the next drive will be delayed several weeks and by that time more American boys will be confronting the Kaiser's hosts. Austria has been as much of a drag as an aid to Germany throughout the war. The Austrians were duck soup to the Russians as long as they had a clear field, and at several critical times the Germans had to weaken their lines elsewhere to save their allies from destruction. The present battle is another case in point but with discord and disorder within the Austrian empire the Kaiser's task will be doubly hard this time.

BUY WAR SAVINGS STAMPS.

The Italians, aided in places by French, British and American heroes, have hurled the Austrians back across the Piave river in a veritable rout. What seems likely now is that Austria may soon be put virtually out of the war. Even if she stays in, her morale is likely to be much weaker. This, we hope, will be reflected on the German masses, who are being sent to their death hungry and poorly clothed. The outlook for the Central powers is decidedly on the decline.

There is one way that the American civilian can help hurry along the loss of hope of victory by the followers of the arch fiend of the world, and that is by buying War Savings Stamps. American boys are dying in Europe. Thousands there are fighting for you men and women and children here at home, going through a hell that you may live in peace. You arise each morning about your usual time, eat breakfast as usual though you may leave off the breakfast bacon, go to work about the same time as you used to do, go back home at noon to eat lunch in peace, work again awhile in the afternoon, go home around six o'clock, take an automobile ride or work in the garden for a couple of hours then lie down in peaceful slumber.

Contrast this with the life of the boys in the trenches. They are called out some mornings around three o'clock and lie themselves into the front trench. Here they stand in the mud and water until the next morning. As the first streaks of dawn appear in the east, they rush over the top into hell itself. Many of them do not come back. For days they go on, with little food, little sleep, and they are doing it all for you.

How any one could fail to give every cent he can to manage to get his hands in at a time like this is strange. Some of these days those boys—those who are left—will return to America. You will go down to see them come in. You will reach out your hands to shake hands with Tom, and you will notice that his right arm is gone. You will ask him where John is and he will tell you that John "went west." There were not enough gas masks and John had to rush into the battle unequipped and was gassed by the devils. The people back home did not furnish money to buy enough masks. How would you feel if a boy tells you that, and you realize that you kept back fifty dollars to buy something that you could have put off?

People of Pontotoc county, this is a serious war, more serious than we have yet come to realize. We hope it will be over soon, and it may. The more money we invest in it, the sooner it will close. This country has

Turn YOUR Loose Change Into BULLETS

—from a Red Blooded Patriotic Standpoint

No doubt you have already given and given generously for your means. But have you suffered any by giving? Surely you intend to give—give—give until it hurts. You won't let yourself be classed with the spineless, yellow-livered slackers who peevishly whimper: "Let those who can afford it do the rest of the giving, I've done my part," or "Some of my folks are in the service, I think that's enough for me."

Wouldn't that be a fine spirit for Our Boys to show, when their captain shouted, "Over the top with the best o' luck and give 'em hell?" Every time you feel like tightening your purse strings when money for a war need is asked, just stop and think how little your sacrifice is, compared to the one your Sammies are making. Money is nothing compared to a leg, or an arm, or eyesight, or a disfigured face—or a LIFE! God—to think there are some animals who call themselves Americans that actually refuse to give "because others can afford it better than they!"

Giving when you can afford it doesn't count. It is giving at the cost of some pleasure, something you don't actually need, that is red-blooded Americanism. That's the kind of stuff the patriots of '76 were made of. That's the kind of stuff you and I have in us. Give—give—give until it hurts.

Just think if you had started saving a quarter a day five years ago—you would have $455.25 plus the interest today! "If you had only started"—there is the story in a nutshell. You thought "It's too little to bother about," so now you are no further along financially than you were five years ago.

Only 21 citizens of the United States registered for the municipal elections in Buenos Aires under the new law which gives the vote to foreigners in municipal elections. The census of 1914 showed that there were 3,449 Americans in the Argentine Republic. It is estimated that this number has doubled since the war began and that most of them are living in Buenos Aires.

The newspapers commented unfavorably on the fact that, of the 130,000 foreigners in the city who were entitled to vote, only 13,615 registered and said this showed that they had no interest in the city beyond making as much money as possible and then returning to their native countries. The papers argued from this that the foreigner's collaboration in the city government could never be depended upon.

The census of 1914 showed that there were nearly as many aliens in Buenos Aires as natives, 797,969 natives. In order to give this great foreign population a voice in the city government a law was passed recently extending the vote to all aliens who were married to Argentine women, or who had children born in Argentina, or who paid a specified amount of house rent. This included nearly all the married foreigners in the city. Unmarried foreigners were entitled to the vote if they paid as much as fifty pesos a year in taxes.

The nationalities most largely represented in the registration were: Italians, 4,442; Spaniards, 5,044; French, 508; Russians, 481; Hungarians, 377; Germans, 285; English, 144.

One of the newspapers in commenting unfavorably on this registration of the ballot by the foreigners said it was an "inexplicable social phenomenon."

Where are those German-American flatterers who assured the Kaiser that he could go any length in his dealings with America as the Americans would not fight under any provocation? Perhaps his nibs would like to know when he reads of the speed and enthusiasm the people are displaying in raising the Third Liberty Loan.

HURRAH FOR PONTOTOC.
While not surprised, we are intensely gratified at the splendid showing made by every part of Pontotoc county in the Liberty Loan campaign. Everybody knew that Pontotoc would come through with her part—she always does, but the rapidity with which this is being done is the best evidence of the fact that the people are awake as never before and are behind the president and will go the limit to take care of the boys at the front and enable the government to give them the best of everything obtainable. There may be some slackers, but they are so few in number that they are ashamed to raise their heads and are not worthy of notice. Of course there are some who are in such straitened circumstances that they are unable to buy bonds, even though they are as loyal as those whose subscriptions are numbered in four figures, but they are showing the right spirit and many of

DETAILS OF EARTHQUAKE

IN CHINA FEBRUARY 17
Hong Kong, February 26 (Correspondence of the Associated Press).—Details of the earthquake disaster at Swatow February 17, published in the China Mail indicated that almost every house in the Chinese quarter of the town was demolished and that the European quarter suffered so badly that it will probably be necessary to rebuild most if not all the houses.

The first shock was felt at about 2 p. m. This seems to have prepared the buildings for their final and complete collapse. The second shock at about 10:30 P. M. brought the buildings tumbling about the inhabitants' ears. Between the two minor shocks were continual and it was only due to many of the inhabitants' deserting their houses that the casualties were not greater.

The Customs house collapsed, the Dutch Consulate was rendered uninhabitable and the Dutch Consul and his family took refuge in sheds on their lawn. A Chinese theater full of soldiers and others collapsed without warning. It is said that not a single soul escaped, including the players. Whole streets of houses were wrecked and the scene in the Chinese quarter is one of absolute devastation.

Many persons assert that during the first shock, streams of boiling water and jets of steam issued from the earth. An informant states that he walked through masses of debris which was once the streets of the native quarter and saw bodies of the dead in heaps of rubbish. The Japanese Red Cross Society of Swatow rendered valuable assistance. Temporary hospitals have been erected to accommodate the wounded. Many hundreds of persons are homeless.

No deaths of Europeans have been reported. Most foreigners left their houses and took refuge in the ships. An instance of the severity of the disturbance is that a ship, 30 miles to sea off Amoy felt the shock distinctly.

It is believed that Amoy suffered as much as if not more than Swatow.

RESOLUTION ADOPTED BY STATE COUNCIL OF DEFENSE.

The government of the United States has called upon Oklahoma to make sure this year of producing food for the people of this state and for the livestock on the farms so that it may not be necessary for us to call for the use of transportation facilities so greatly needed in supplying our armies.

The United States department of Agriculture, through its direct representatives in the agricultural extension work throughout the state, has formulated a definite program of production based on accurate knowledge of what should be done. The essential feature of this program is:

Not more than one-half of the cultivated land on any farm should be planted to cotton.

Supplemental to this recommendation and of equal importance with it are the following recommendations: There should be a garden on every farm, sufficient to supply home needs, consisting chiefly of products which may be stored in their natural state or canned for winter use.

There should be planted on every farm not less than 1 acre of cane or Sudan grass for each head of horses and cattle on the farm.

Corn should be planted only on land where corn produced a crop last year good enough for seed this year; other land being planted to kafir, milo, or fetterita for grain for feed, and to peanuts for feed and sale.

Every effort should be made to increase poultry production and to produce on every farm a sufficient supply of dairy products and of pork for home consumption.

County and school districts of defense are hereby directed to see to it that every effort is made to comply with these recommendations, adapting their application to differences in local conditions existing throughout the state.

Failure on the part of any member of the council of defense or any individual fully to comply with and carry into effect these recommendations is obstructing the most efficient prosecution of the war and is indirectly lending aid to the enemies of this nation.

It is ordered by the state council of defense that this recommendation be endorsed and that county school district councils of defense be requested to co-operate in enforcing this program and that failure on the part of landowners or tenants to comply with this order shall at once be referred to the state council of defense.

MOTHER GOOSE RHYMES

FOR WAR PURPOSES.

(By the Associated Press)
Columbia, Mo., April 9.—Mother Goose is going to "do her bit" to help win the war. Several of the most renowned nursery rhymes have been adapted to war purposes by G. F. Nardin, graduate of the University of Missouri, and are being illustrated by posters made by students of the Art Department of the university. Two of his rewritten rhymes follow:

Kaiser Bill went up the hill,
To whip the American nation;
Bill fell down and lost his crown,
He stuck on conservation.

Sing a song of thrift stamps,
War bread made of rye
Saving, too, the shortening,
We used to use in pie
Weeping all the porkless days,
And eating meatless meals
It makes a lot of difference,
The way a fellow feels.

Patriotic posters, designed at the university, decorate all Columbia.

WOMAN IS HIDDEN FROM THE WORLD

Ohio Miss for Sixteen Years Is a Voluntary Prisoner on a Farm.

WORKS FOR ITS OWNER

Secret of Working Agreement Not Revealed to Relatives and Neighbors Until Death Claims the Aged Lothario.

Eaton, O.—Miss Minnie Decamp, aged thirty-seven years, lived with Jacob Schmick, a seventy-three-year-old bachelor farmer of this place, for 16 years, and no one ever knew it. During these years the young woman was a voluntary prisoner on the Schmick farm, having entered into an agreement with the man to be his housekeeper and caretaker. His 50-acre farm was her world until his approaching death impelled her to leave him so that she might keep her secret.

During the 16 years Miss Decamp spent on the farm she never spoke to another person. When visitors came she quickly hid herself. In Eaton, where Schmick was well-known as a prosperous bachelor, no one had an inkling of the presence of a woman on his farm, and in the rural districts no man or woman can remember seeing Miss Decamp.

Reveals Herself.

A few days ago Miss Decamp revealed herself to the world, forced to do so by the death of Schmick. She left him, after she had cared for him in his last illness, and went to Eaton. A. J. Schaffer, a neighbor, found

Cared for Him in His Last Illness.

Schmick in his home near death, and took the sick man to the Schaffer home, where Schmick died later.

Miss Decamp contemplates filing suit against the estate, valued at $10,000, and has obtained the services of an attorney. The compact between Miss Decamp and Schmick was cleverly concealed from relatives. For hours at a time, when their relatives visited the farm, the young woman kept herself hidden in some part of the house. How she obtained new clothing is not known. Miss Decamp told of her part in the agreement when an investigation was made as to the causes leading up to Schmick's death.

BOY SHOOTS OUT OWN EYE

Shoots at Blank Cartridge With Air Rifle and His Aim is Perfect.

York, Pa.—His perfect aim with an air rifle almost cost eleven-year-old Charles Keech his life and less seriously injured two companions, Owen Neal and Francis Spicer, who had called to witness his skill.

Young Keech had somewhere obtained a blank cartridge for an army rifle, and this he placed on a nearby fence, its "business end" pointed toward himself. His aim to hit this end with the small lead pellet from his air rifle was successful, but the impact discharged the cartridge. The wad struck Keech and tore out his left eye. One finger of the Neal boy was torn almost off by a fragment of the brass shell, while the rebounding bullet from the air rifle entered the arm of young Spicer.

All were attended at the York hospital, where it was ascertained that Keech would lose the sight of the injured eye.

War Has Eliminated Tramps.

Hazleton, Pa.—The war has eliminated tramps from the anthracite coal fields and greatly reduced misdemeanors, according to figures made public just recently by Mayor Harvey. With detectives watching on all railroads for suspicious characters, to guard against pro-German plots, tramps have had a hard time of it, and thus far this season but two have made application for lodging in the local lockup against an average of from five to six a night in other years.

JAPANESE EDUCATOR STRONG FOR ALLIES

Tokio, June 25.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press).—Dr. Inazo Nitobe, a well known Japanese educator and author, who went to the United States some years ago as a lecturer, has warned his fellow countrymen against making a separate peace with Germany and told them that in the present world crisis they should be very careful as to the nature of criticism they may indulge in about the war. In an article written for a commercial magazine, he points out that Japan is now the cynosure of the powers and expresses regret that, both before and during the war, some bitter criticism has been made by some publicists regarding the Anglo-Japanese alliance.

Setting aside the question as to how much advantage the alliance has brought Japan, Dr. Nitobe thinks the present certainly not the right occasion for discussing its possible demerits. In his opinion, it was scarcely

BAVARIAN DENOUNCES PRUSSIAN DESPOTISM

Paris, May 25 (Correspondence of The Associated Press).—French aviators are dropping behind the German lines and upon German cities and towns thousands of copies of an appeal written by a Bavarian urging his compatriots to protest against Prussian tyranny and autocracy.

The document was found recently on a Bavarian prisoner of war captured by the French. In it the writer places upon Emperor William the guilt of the war and expresses other sentiments against Prussia's militarism well known to exist in Bavaria, despite frequent official testimonials of alleged solidarity and unity between both German states.

As its circulation in Germany is, of course, prohibited, the French authorities undertook its distribution by air route. Some copies accidentally have fallen on the French lines. The document reads:

BAVARIAN COMPATRIOTS:
"The frightful misery which because of the war has spread also to Bavaria, and which is leading our Bavarian people to almost certain ruin, imposes upon us the sacred duty of thinking of the welfare of our country and our compatriots."

"Who is it that has led us to this abyss of perdition? Let us be frank! It is not presumptuous enemies! It is not the English and the French! Neither is the other countries that we call the Entente! The guilty ones, one can say in all conscience today, are solely and only the Prussians, or more precisely, there is but one guilty party—the King of Prussia. The official assertion that our adversaries started the war against us and menaced us, us and our own, is a falsehood."

Now the King of Prussia has the right, in the name of Bavaria, to declare war and make peace.

"What the atrocious misery this country suffers signifies—a misery that shouts to heaven—must make us realize it cruelly. Prussia, by its absolutist political situation, is obliged to go to war at longer or shorter periods, if for nothing else than to sustain the interests of its dominating clique. The history of Prussia is one of continual war with more or less lengthy interruptions. Are not the Prussian country squires (hobereaux) already talking, despite the terrible misery, of the next war?"

"The present war, also, is not at all in the interests of Bavaria, but is solely a gamble for the power of the Prussian state, its military and its agrarians."

"We Bavarians are not in any way in opposition to the interests of the peoples whom we are fighting. On the contrary France, for example, has notably favored our country and our people during the course of history. Among the governments that are our opponents in this war, not one has as one of its war aims the extinction of our country. But the war hinges entirely, and with good right, against Prussia which, with the Russia of other days, is the most corrupt state in Europe. The sons of Bavaria sacrifice their lives by hundreds of thousands for this Prussia, for this country which a few decades ago, in 1866, took away a part of our territory and an enormous war indemnity."

"And even if it were possible to be victorious what can our country, what may we Bavarians expect from such a victory? As little as nothing."

"All the precious Bavarian blood, all the mourning, the stirring, horrible suffering of our compatriots, of our women and our children, all the lives sacrificed and ruined and all the material losses; all of that has gone for nothing! All the sacrifices have been without object, they haven't even been for the defense of our for it has not been menaced, but merely have been for the conservation of Prussian power. In addition, as allies of Prussia, we have drawn upon us the hatred and disapprobation of the entire world."

"Compatriots, the hour has come when we must reflect whether we wish to continue on to utter loss, or whether we want to unite in an effort to save what may yet be saved. Each work in this own circle, making proselytes, attempting to spread light round about."

GERMANY PLANS TO CONTROL RUSSIA

Stockholm, June 25.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press).—Germany's aim toward control of the economic life of Russia after the war is going rapidly ahead. The plan is being worked out through an organization which has already spread to different parts of the country.

Copenhagen has been selected as headquarters for this work. Control has already been obtained in Copenhagen by a branch of a Christiania banking house by Privy Counselor Mendelssohn, the famous German banker, who is said to be the motive power in the transactions which are to be under a neutral flag. German officials believe, according to information received in Stockholm that by this arrangement Germany's risk will be reduced and at the same time safeguarded against any consequence of the war whatever may be the outcome.

Germany's efforts to control the country are to be directed at first hand against the Russian metal industry and many private enterprises, such as railways, banks and steamship companies. Possession by Germany interests has been secured by a great number of shares of stock of such concerns. Russian shareholders, laboring under Bolshevik threats to confiscate their property, have been only too willing in many instances to sell to the Germans at a sacrifice.

Attempts have been made also to secure control of large banks in Petrograd. Special endeavors have been made by the Germans to get hold of shares of the railway lines to the south coast toward Turkestan and a controlling interest in the system of the Trans-Siberian railway. This line reaches from Zlatoust, by way of Orsk, to Tientsin, touching extremely rich mineral and agricultural districts.

Another important object desired by the Germans is control of the Russian Steam Navigation and Trading company, which has its headquarters in Odessa. Germany now has physical control over vessels of this company and is energetically working her way so as to have established economic control over this company when the war eventually comes to an end. The Russian Steam Navigation and Trading company has a fleet of sixty-nine modern steamers, and ninety-two sailing boats, and owns coal mines, large shipyards and docks. Even at this date Germany has her eyes on the Pacific ocean trade. Plans have been set for buying the Russian Baltic Mercantile marine to sail under the Russian or a neutral flag in the Pacific in competition with Japanese and American ships.

Y. M. C. A. NEEDS HIGH GRADE MOTORISTS FOR OVERSEAS

A special appeal is made by the Y. M. C. A. to well-educated men of American birth who are from thirty-one to fifty years of age and who are willing to volunteer for war work as motor transport drivers.

Men who have driven their own cars and who are fitted by birth and education to associate one moment with officers of high rank and the next to get a hustle on and pilot a truck load of supplies over shell torn roads in the least possible time, are the kind of men wanted. Mechanics to the rescue.

These men are not expected to volunteer to do this work without remuneration; provision of an allowance sufficient to keep the family in the absence of its head will be made.

Applications should be made to Overseas Motor Transport Department, Y. M. C. A., 247 Madison Avenue, New York City.

SINN FEINERS TALK OF IRISH REPUBLIC

Dublin, June 25 (Correspondence of The Associated Press).—The most important electioneering document which is being used by the Sinn Feiners in their contest against the Irish Nationalists in East Cavan is an appeal for the establishment of a republic in Ireland. The Associated Press correspondent, in a tour of the East Cavan District, found this document posted everywhere on public buildings and cross-roads, generally surrounded by a small Sinn Fein flag. It was in the form of a small handbill. "Privately printed by Arthur Griffith," who is now interned in England.

The document reads in part: "Can Ireland stand alone? Is she rich enough to set up as an independent nation?"

"These are questions which can best be answered by comparing Ireland with small nations of Europe that have prospered in freedom. See how Ireland holds her own in size: Belgium has 11,000 square miles; Holland 13,000; Denmark 15,000; Switzerland 16,000; Ireland 32,000; Serbia 33,000; Portugal 35,000; Greece 42,000; Bulgaria 43,000.

"In population also she is well to the fore. Norway, Denmark and Switzerland, all have less than her 4,400,000 population. Serbia, Bulgaria and Greece, have only one or two hundred thousand more.

"What do these nations pay each year to run their own business—and in most cases do their business better than big nations? Here are the annual bills: Serbia $5,250,000; Greece $5,400,000; Switzerland, $7,000,000; Bulgaria, $7,000,000; Norway, $7,200,000; Denmark, $9,500,000.

"Dublin Castle rule cost Ireland last year $23,700,000. All these small nations keep their own armies and three of them have navies as well. It is cheaper therefore to be free than in slavery."

Good cooks
consider
Olive Oil or Frying Fats"

MANY a housewife hesitates to fry fish because of the smoke and odor, but with Mazola there is no such objection. Mazola can be used so hot without burning, that it "crisps over" the fish very quickly—brings it to the table golden brown and delicate, never heavy or greasy. Thousands of American women are using this pure, delicious oil from corn in preference to butter, lard, suet and "frying fats." For salads Mazola is as good as the best olive oil—and it costs much less. Mazola is a most delicate shortening—makes rich but digestible cakes and pastry. Saves time, prevents waste as Mazola is an oil and requires no melting. And Mazola saves animal fats.

SAUTÉD FLOUNDER
Put into a shallow frying pan enough Mazola to cover the bottom, and when hot stir in one-fourth teaspoon salt. Lay the flounder in bone side down and cook carefully until well browned; then turn over and brown in the same manner. Garnish with lemon and serve very hot.
In deep frying, use just enough Mazola to cover the food, and no more. It must be hot enough to form a crust quickly. Fry only a few pieces at a time.

Mazola is always uniform.
For sale in pints, quarts and gallons. (The large sizes are the most economical to buy.) Get a can from your grocer today.

Ask your grocer for the valuable Cook Book especially prepared for Mazola users—or write us direct. FREE.

them! They cannot sign their names read their orders posted on bulletin boards or write home. Shall we neglect our school and permit the children of the present day to grow up without knowing how to even read and write under the present advantages? The census of this county shows that we have 11,000 children of school age and the teachers' report shows that only about 40 per cent of that number in daily attendance. We should and must improve this if we give our children what is coming to them. To aid and assist you I wish to call attention to the following essentials, which should be considered by you in today's meeting.

Compulsory Attendance.
I wish to call your attention to section No. 224 of 1917 school law. The law says it shall be the duty of every parent or guardian to send their children between the ages of 8 and 16 as much as 66 per cent of the school year. The state recognizes the fact that the future destiny of our nation rests upon its citizenship. Hence I am going to insist that this law be carried out as far as possible and practicable. It is the duty of you as patrons and citizens to see that the law is enforced in your school.

Transfer of Pupils.
The law relative to the transfer of pupils has been changed materially. I ask you to read carefully sections from 275-282. You will notice that it places the transferred pupils on a tuition basis, hence a weak district can be ruined financially by too many transfers. While I wish to act intelligently and judiciously in making the transfer, or rejecting as the case may be, yet I cannot do this unless you give me some information as to the locality of the parent topography of the district, etc. So I insist that you co-operate with me in this matter that I may do justice to all concerned.

Poultry Exhibits.
In Session Laws of 1917, Section 312, you will observe that you are required to set aside so much each year for this purpose. This is to stimulate the raising of poultry which is so much needed. We wish to see a fine exhibit in every district next school term.

Purchasing of Library.
The law provides how this should be done and how much should be spent each year for library purposes. We have a selected list with prices in the office. When you get ready to purchase books for the library or make purchases for any other school appliances I want to confer with you. The school boards have purchased thousands of dollars worth of books, charts, etc., from traveling agents going through the country, that have not been worth anything to the district. Before you buy anything from such agents claiming the endorsement of the County Superintendent, I ask you to see me or call me before you do anything definitely. I do not endorse such agents.

Federal Aid.
Many districts did not understand how the Federal Aid was appropriated last year, so did not get any aid. If you do not vote an additional levy other than the 5 mills you will not receive any Federal Aid. The regulations have been so modified that district boards must provide for one-half the amount in excess of the 5 mill levy to maintain schools for eight months. If other expenses than teachers' salaries exceed $60.00 per room the additional expenses should be provided by the district. So if you have any improvement to make of a permanent nature you will need to vote special number of mills to care for it as the Federal Aid cannot be had on improvements of a permanent nature.

Clerk's Report.
In making the clerk's report you should make it complete and full. Giving all the information that it calls for, especially the different items under "Summary of Warrants Issued" and "Library." The other information called for on the sheet I have in the office. Remember you make affidavit to the report and I am perfectly willing to help you in making the report, but I will not accept a report incomplete. My annual report to State Superintendent depends upon your report.

Estimates.
Be careful in making your estimate of needs. You do not want to be extravagant, yet, you want to have a sufficient levy to take care of your school for at least eight months. The excise board can reduce the levy but cannot raise it.

In conclusion, I wish to thank you for the hearty co-operation you have given me in the school work. I feel that without this strong co-operation of patrons, boards, teachers and superintendents our schools would not be a success, but with this co-operative force and school interest, we can make our schools meet the demands of our present day life.

Yours sincerely,
A. FLOYD,
County Superintendent.

85 MEN CALLED TO ARMY ABOUT JULY 22

The local board today received orders to send 85 men to Ft. Oglethorpe, Georgia, between July 22 and 27. There are only about 100 men left in class 1 in Pontotoc county so this call will practically take all. The board is mailing the questionnaires to the newly registered men and will probably have enough to meet one or two calls from this list, after which class 2 will be drawn on.

90 MEN OFF TO ARMY TOMORROW

The 90 young men whose names appeared some days ago will entrain at Ada for Camp Cody, N. M., late tomorrow afternoon under present arrangements. They will report to the board early in the afternoon.

Height of European Countries.
According to geographers, the average height above the sea of the different countries of Europe is as follows, stated in feet: Holland, 150; Belgium, 335; Russia, 550; Germany, 507; Great Britain, 712; Roumania, 922; Denmark (including Iceland), 1,135; France, 1,200; Scandinavia (Norway and Sweden), 1,404; Italy, 1,664; Austria, 1,668; Balkan peninsula, 1,900; Spain and Portugal, 2,296; Switzerland, 4,263. From this it would appear that the largest, Russia, is the third lowest, and that the third smallest, Switzerland, is the highest.

Value of Old Shoes.
From one ton of old shoes can be extracted metals to the value of $4.70; grease, $7.25; animal black, $50; sulphate of ammonia, $22.50; a total of $65.45, or about 15 cents a pair. The price is a good lubricant and the animal black is said by M. C. Lamb, the English chemist who is responsible for these figures, to be equal to the best of bone black.

Poor Man!
According to Plutarch, Cato said that in his whole life he most repented of three things. One was that he had trusted a secret to a woman; another, that he went by water when he might have gone by land; the third, that he had remained one whole day without doing any business of moment.

Heat-Resisting Cement.
It is often convenient to have a cement that will resist considerable temperatures. Here is the recipe for a good heat-withstanding cement: Take 50 parts of sulphur, one part of resin and one part of tallow. Melt these ingredients together and add fine powdered glass to form a paste. This cement must be heated before being used.

Changed Subject of Woe.
Irene was crying in bed because her mamma insisted she should wear a certain nightgown. At last mamma said: "Why, Irene, how foolish to cry about that! You'll sleep just as well in that gown as any other." She stopped long enough to say, very dignified: "But, mamma, you don't know. I've changed my mind and I'm crying about another thing now."

June 28th will be the biggest day for America since we entered the war.

DATE CRAWFORD FOR REPRESENTATIVE

The News is authorized to announce the candidacy of J. D. (Date) Crawford of Stonewall for the Democratic nomination for Representative of Pontotoc county, he having yielded to the solicitation of his friends and consented to make the race.

Mr. Crawford needs little in the way of introduction to the voters of Pontotoc county. He has resided here for eighteen years and has always been actively engaged in various campaigns of the past and always in the thick of the fight when the Democratic party's interests or any war activity is at stake. During his residence in this county he has been engaged in the practice of law in which profession he has made a success. If elected he can be counted on to always be on guard and look well after the interests of his constituents.

His platform will be outlined in a later issue of the News.
